DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO EXTEND BRIEFING SCHEDULE

COMES NOW THE DEFENDANT, by and through her undersigned counsel, and hereby requests a 30-day extension of the briefing schedule previously established in this case. Under the current briefing order, the Defendant's brief is due on July 2, 2003. The undersigned counsel for the Defendant has three briefs in other cases due in this Court in the next several weeks, and also has a trial in the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina scheduled for July 14, 2003. Defendant's counsel did not represent the Defendant at her four-day jury trial in the lower court, and therefore counsel also needs additional time to carefully review the trial transcript to determine the appropriate issues to present in this appeal.

Defendant's counsel has conferred with Assistant United States Attorney L. Patrick Auld, who has authorized counsel to relay to the Court that he has no opposition to this motion.

THEREFORE, for the above reasons, the Defendant respectfully requests a 30-day extension of the briefing schedule previously established in this case.

Respectfully submitted this the 23rd day of June, 2003.
