WAIVER OF DETENTION HEARING

WAIVER OF PRELIMINARY HEARING

[REDACTED] :

I, [REDACTED] charged in a criminal complaint pending in this district with alleged violations of federal law, and having been advised by counsel of my rights to preliminary hearing as required by Rule 32.1 of the federal rules of criminal procedure, do hereby waive my right to a preliminary hearing.

Additionally, having been informed by counsel of the nature of the charges now pending against me, and having been advised of the nature of a detention hearing and my right to such a hearing before a United States Magistrate Judge, after considering the probable evidence and the likely result of such a hearing, do hereby waive my right to a detention hearing and agree to be held without bond.

Respectfully submitted this ____ day of February, 2004.

The Court hereby accepts the Defendant's waiver of both his preliminary hearing and his detention hearing and enters the following order:

IT IS ORDERED that there is probable cause to believe that the Defendant has violated federal law as set forth in the complaint and that the Government's motion for detention is granted and the Defendant is detained without privilege of bond pending a trial in this matter.

This the _____ of February, 2004.

United States Magistrate Judge
